Charlotte joined Gepp Solicitors in August 2026 as a Probate Executive in our Private Client team.

She has six years' experience in probate and estate administration, assisting clients with obtaining Grants of Probate and guiding them through the wider estate administration process.

Charlotte studied Law at the University of East Anglia in Norwich before beginning her career in private client work. She recently relocated from Great Yarmouth and is looking forward to developing her career with Gepp Solicitors while settling into a new area.

Approach

Friendly, professional and approachable, Charlotte understands that dealing with the estate of someone who has passed away can be an emotional and difficult experience. She takes a personal and supportive approach, helping bereaved clients navigate the process with sensitivity and understanding.

Additional information

Outside of work, Charlotte enjoys swimming, cycling and walking, as well as socialising with friends and travelling. She is also interested in photography and particularly enjoys taking photographs while out on nature walks.
