Chloe is a Solicitor in the Criminal Law team at Gepp Solicitors, providing advice and support to clients facing a wide range of criminal investigations and proceedings.

Chloe qualified as a solicitor in June 2024, having completed her training contract at a law firm in Southend-on-Sea, where she developed her experience in criminal defence.

Drawn to criminal law by its varied and challenging nature, Chloe was particularly motivated by the opportunity to help people through difficult and often stressful situations.

Chloe is an accredited Police Station Representative and is qualified to undertake duty solicitor work at the Magistrates' Court. She assists clients in both legally aided and privately funded criminal matters.

Chloe has experience dealing with a broad range of criminal offences, including complex and high-profile cases. Her recent work has included matters involving dangerous dogs and prosecutions brought by the RSPCA.
