Daniella joined Gepp Solicitors in September 2026 as a Conveyancing Assistant in our Residential Property team.

Having worked in conveyancing for two years, Daniella brings valuable experience in supporting clients throughout the property transaction process. She began her conveyancing career in 2024, having previously worked in administrative roles within the NHS.

Daniella studied Health and Social Care at Chelmsford College before deciding to pursue a change in career, seeking new opportunities for professional development and progression.

In her role at Gepp Solicitors, Daniella primarily assists with residential property sales. Her responsibilities include liaising with clients, preparing and updating draft contracts, and dealing with enquiries to help transactions progress smoothly.

Outside of work, Daniella enjoys spending time with her family and friends, cooking and travelling.
