

Jemma Bennett joined Gepp Solicitors in 2007 and is a Senior Paralegal in our Employment team.

Upon leaving college, Jemma completed her Pitman Legal Secretarial course at merit level and came to work for Gepp Solicitors as a legal secretary starting off in our Civil Litigation Department.

After five years, Jemma had a break and went to work in London for 2 years gaining experience in the commercial law sector before returning back to Gepps where she worked in the Employment Team for the Head of Department as a legal secretary. Jemma has since undergone her paralegal training via CILEx and has gained a distinction at Level 3 in Employment Law and has a Certificate in Law & Practice in Civil Litigation, gaining a distinction in 3 modules.

Jemma has since been recognised for her hard work and dedication to the firm and now undertakes the role of a Senior Paralegal.

Approach

Jemma prides herself in being able to stay calm under pressure. With tight deadlines she is able to approach tasks diligently and calmly. She is very approachable and strives to help clients through their matters.

Memberships

Jemma is a member of CILEX