

As Head of the Agricultural & Rural Land / Commercial Property team, Keri Constantatou has considerable expertise and experience dealing with all aspects of 'land law', commercial property and rural / agricultural matters.

She advises on a wide range of rural issues including the development of farmland and reserving development value, tenancy succession, footpaths and public access issues as well as general freehold and leasehold property work for farmers and rural landowners.

Keri joined Gepp Solicitors in 2007 after completing her law degree at De Montfort University and was admitted as a Solicitor in 2013 after training with the firm. Keri became a partner in 2019.

Approach

Keri works with a common sense approach in order to provide a high quality service for her clients, particularly in relation to complex rural and commercial transactions. Keri's clients value her approachability and responsiveness.

Memberships

Keri is a member of the Agricultural Law Association and is a council member for the Essex Agricultural Society as well as just being recently appointed on to the Essex branch of the CLA Committee.