

Prior to joining Gepp Solicitors, Stuart completed his training contract in 2020 and practiced as a Family Solicitor predominantly in North Essex where he gained the foundations of his family law experience.

Approach

Stuart has a robust, but empathetic approach to client's issues. Stuart strives to provide clients with constructive, proactive, but honest advice regarding their matter. Stuart understands the importance of excellent client communication and is versatile and adaptable with a positive attitude.